2. Objective

The purpose of the Remuneration Policy is to ensure that the Supervisory Board members receive remuneration for their activities which is appropriate to their tasks, responsibilities and the economic situation of the Company. It is intended to promote the business strategy and long-term development of SCHOELLER-BLECKMANN OILFIELD EQUIPMENT Aktiengesellschaft while at the same time ensuring the objectivity and independence of the Supervisory Board.

The Supervisory Board remuneration must be in line with market conditions and be competitive enough to attract suitably qualified individuals to work for an internationally operating listed company. It is intended to promote the long-term development of the Company and the execution of our strategy 2030. It must also allow for a professionally and personally balanced composition of the Board, paying particular attention to diversity in terms of representation of all sexes and a balanced age structure and professional background of members.

3. Remuneration components

The remuneration is resolved by the Annual General Meeting. If the members of the Supervisory Board have not been in tenure to the Board for the entire financial year, the remuneration is paid on a pro rata basis (calculated on a monthly basis). The total annual remuneration is paid in full after the Annual General Meeting.

The total remuneration consists of the remuneration components below:

3.1 Annual fixed base remuneration

The respective amount of the fixed base remuneration for supervisory activities varies according to function (chairperson, member of the Supervisory Board).

3.2. Attendance fee

Each member of the Supervisory Board receives an attendance fee for each Supervisory Board meeting attended.

3.3. D&O insurance

The Supervisory Board members are included in a D&O insurance policy with risk-adequate coverage. The associated premiums are to be paid by the Company.

4. Promotion of business strategy and long-term development

The Remuneration Policy promotes a balanced and broadly qualified composition of the Supervisory Board, thereby supporting a sustainable development of the Company.

5. Remuneration and employment conditions of employees

6. Terms of office of the Supervisory Board

New Supervisory Board members are elected at the proposal of the Supervisory Board for a period not exceeding the end of the Annual General Meeting that resolves on the discharge for the third financial year after the election. The financial year in which the Supervisory Board member was elected is not counted

Pursuant to the Company's Articles of Association, at least one member resigns from the Supervisory Board each year upon conclusion of the Annual General Meeting. This ensures effective control by the shareholder community. The departing member is immediately eligible for re-election.

Apart from the appointment resolutions of the Annual General Meeting, there are no contractual relationships under labor law between SCHOELLER-BLECKMANN OILFIELD EQUIPMENT Aktiengesellschaft and the Supervisory Board members.

7. Derogation from the Remuneration Policy in exceptional circumstances
